

A query that lists each movie, the film category it is classified in, and the number of times it has been rented out.

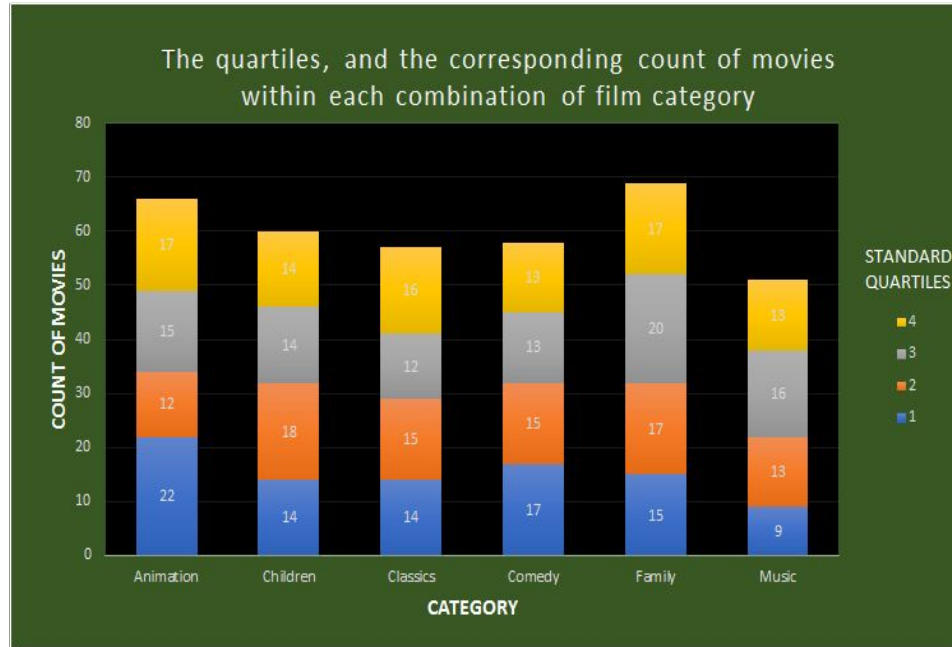

From the graph we can see that most families rent Animation category most, followed by family category and music category the least.

How the length of rental duration of these family-friendly movies compares to the duration that all movies are rented for?

This shows the rental duration of each category. For example in the family category, the maximum number of movies is rented for six days. It is easy to compare durations of different categories now.

Comparing the count of movies for each quartile, sorting according to rental duration in ascending order.

The graph shows movies sorted according to duration in ascending order. Animation has the highest number of movies in the first quartile and in the same category there are 17 movies in the fourth quartile and more can be compared.

The top paying customers and the amount they paid in 2007.

The graph shows the top paying customers in 2007 and the amounts they paid monthly. Hunt made the top monthly payment of 100 dollars in April 2007.